LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the weekend delegates should be able to:

1. Use consultation skills to identify pharmaceutical issues
2. Undertake a medication review and make recommendations
3. Provide information to patients and prescribers
4. Apply a reflective approach to professional practice

These learning outcomes are met by means of workshops and discussion groups. The workshops are interactive and involve case studies, role-play and discussion of clinical areas.

Delegates will develop evidence, to complement their performance standards in the form of a workbook. They will also receive a certificate of attendance.
